Must RSVP by Monday, June 14, 2021, by phone at 325/392-3737.

EMPLOYERS:

- Are you an employer who wants to help guide local youth (ages 16-24) to become productive, working members of society in addition to building our local workforce?
- Would you be interested in training a young person to learn basic soft skills and workplace principles, for a limited period of time, at NO cost to your business. If so, attend and learn how to be a provider for the WIOA Work Experience Program.
- Would you as an employer be willing to hire an employee if you received up to 50% reimbursement of wages while providing on the job training, (OJT Program) providing knowledge and skills to the employee essential to the full performance of the job?
- As an employer would you participate in a Summer Youth Program by investing in the communities future workforce? Weekly wages would be paid by the WFS and in return you assist in training our local youth.

JOB SEEKERS:

- Looking for your first job? Changing Careers? Lost your Job? Need additional training to move into higher skilled job and opportunity?

IF SO, THIS PROGRAM IS A MUST FOR YOU!

- The Concho Valley Workforce Solutions, Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) grant program can help with:

Funding (tuition) for occupational/vocational training & books, on the job training to gain new skills, transportation, job placement, clothing for an interview, child care and more....

Attend this luncheon program to learn more and how to apply for assistance in gaining certification in healthcare and education services, construction/industrial production, teaching, public safety, business management, trucking, advanced manufacturing & engineering and more....
